A NEW HOME FOR THE ARTS IN GLENDALE

Hailed as one of the top intimate theatres in Los Angeles, Antaeus is a company that has experienced tremendous growth over our 25-year history. In order to continue to grow and take risks artistically, we are expanding our space physically to better meet the needs of our family of artists and audiences.

Our new home in Downtown Glendale will allow us to grow our audiences, expand our classroom space for our ever-growing Academy, and allow us increased resources to expand our mission-critical arts education programs to the community.

Written by Caryl Churchill
Directed by Casey Stangl

Sex and Gender. Race and Power. Politics and Family. Plus Queen Victoria! Caryl Churchill's biting satire boldly tackles them all. Set in both British Colonial Africa and 1970s London, Cloud 9 is an outrageously funny, thought-provoking look at the rigid boxes society puts us in — and what it takes to break free.

NORTH HOLLYWOOD / March 3 - April 24, 2016

HEDDA GABLER

Written by Henrik Ibsen
Directed by Steven Robman

Ibsen creates one of literature's most compelling characters in this complex and enigmatic story of a woman trapped in a world she cannot bear. Dark, funny, and explosive, Hedda Gabler asks us to contemplate the harsh differences between expectation and reality.

NORTH HOLLYWOOD/ May 26 - July 17, 2016

Written by William Shakespeare
Directed by Larissa Kokernot

Shakespeare's sparkling comedy illuminates the courage of a young woman casting off the constraints of her world and starting anew in the Forest of Arden. Funny, hopeful, tender, and wise, As You Like It subverts the traditional rules of romance and moves us through all the seasons of love.

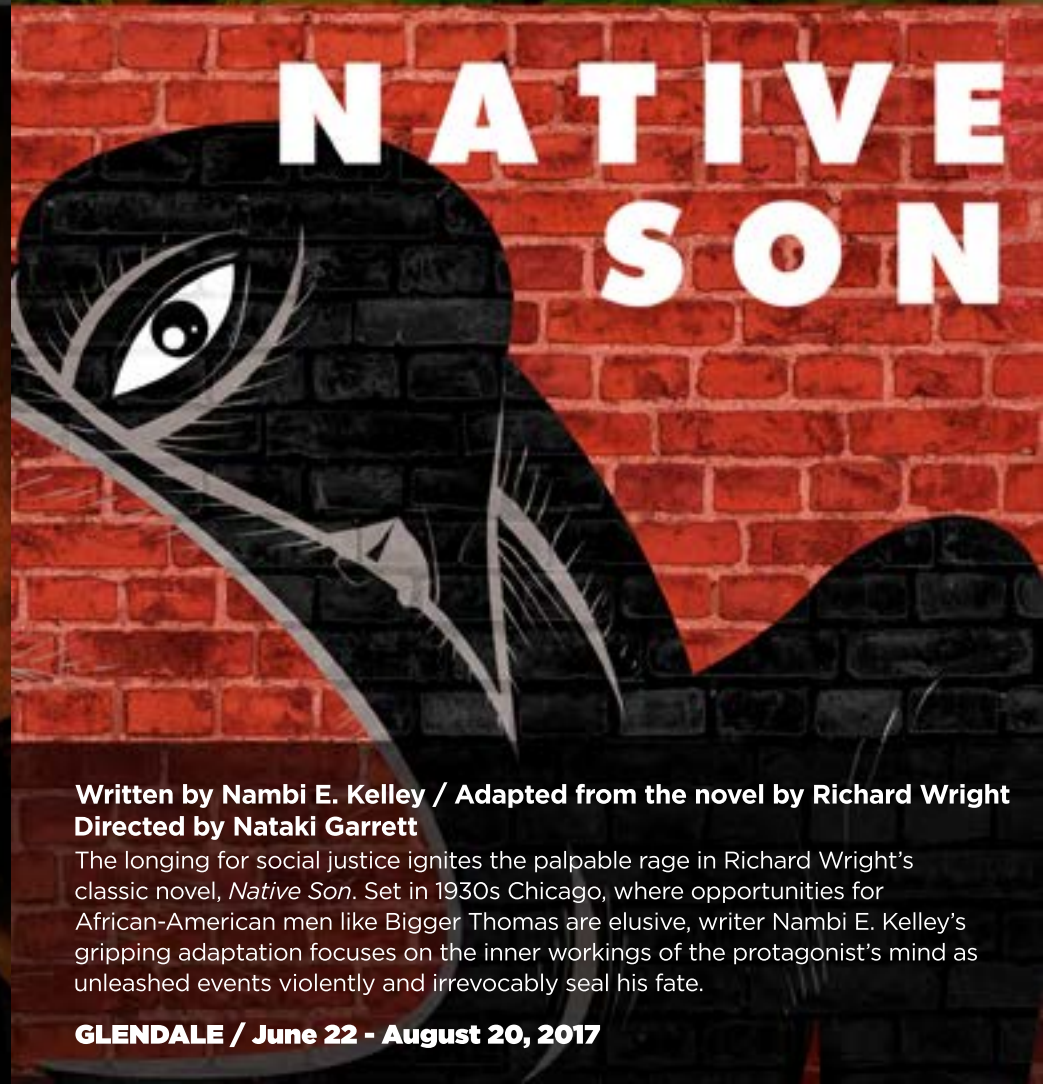

GLENDALE / March 16 - May 14, 2017

CAT ON A HOT TIN ROOF

Written by Tennessee Williams
Directed by Cameron Watson

Filled to the brim with painful secrets and desperate longings, Tennessee Williams' masterwork is the story of a family breaking down. With iconic roles and beautiful poetry Cat On A Hot Tin Roof is a sexy, smoldering descent into a world choking on mendacity.

GLENDALE / September 8 - November 6, 2016

Written by Nambi E. Kelley / Adapted from the novel by Richard Wright
Directed by Nataki Garrett

The longing for social justice ignites the palpable rage in Richard Wright's classic novel, Native Son. Set in 1930s Chicago, where opportunities for African-American men like Bigger Thomas are elusive, writer Nambi E. Kelley's gripping adaptation focuses on the inner workings of the protagonist's mind as unleashed events violently and irrevocably seal his fate.
